

December 2025 Edition

In the Library

November was brilliant in the library as we celebrated Non-Fiction November! Our displays were packed with fascinating books—from ancient history and space science to arts, crafts, and wellbeing. It was wonderful seeing pupils explore the real world through reading.

Book Fair

A huge thank you to all parents who supported our Book Fair—it raised an incredible £900 to help us buy exciting new resources! Now December is here, the library has a festive makeover with Christmas books and special displays for pupils from Reception to Year 6. It's the perfect time to visit!

🎄 The Most Wonderful Time for the Most Wonderful Books!

Christmas is nearly here! Lights sparkle, gingerbread scents fill the air, and carols play everywhere. It's magical—and books make it even better!

READING ambassadors

Our Reading Ambassadors have been busy organising the library, creating displays, and diving into new books! Two deliveries of Children's Book Awards titles have arrived, and they're already reviewing them.

We're thrilled to be part of this opportunity! As December begins, the library gets a festive makeover with Christmas books and shelves full of brilliant reads from Reception to Year 6. It's the perfect time to visit!

CHRISTMAS

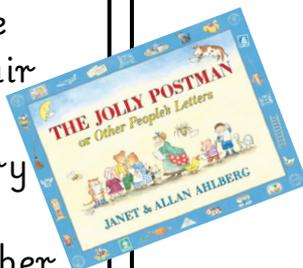

TV

This year, there is a new Julia Donaldson animated film, The Scarecrows' Wedding, set to air at 3:10pm on Christmas Day. Join Betty O'Barley and Harry O'Hay as the scarecrows planning a wedding to remember.

SPECIAL books

Christmas always reminds me of special books. One favourite was The Jolly Christmas Postman by Janet and Allan Ahlberg. Do you know it? You can pull out tiny letters and cards for characters like Cinderella and the Big Bad Wolf—pure Christmas magic!

A GIFT THAT lasts all year

Books are the perfect present - they never need charging and can be enjoyed again and again! From funny picture books to exciting adventures or classic Christmas tales, every book is an invitation to explore.

OUR CHRISTMAS reading mission

- Read Together: Snuggle up with a story for just ten minutes a day.
- Create a Tradition: Unwrap a new book
- On Christmas Eve to read before bed.
- Share the Love: Ask your child about their favourite part of a Christmas story.

MEMORABLE Christmas

- Let's make this holiday memorable - not just for toys and treats, but for the brilliant stories we share.
- Happy Reading, and a Very Merry Christmas!
